Born to an Australian mother and Singaporean father, Rebecca started modeling in her hometown in Melbourne at 16 yrs old. Since then, she has worked all over Asia. Taiwan, Tokyo, Osaka, Hong Kong, Beijing, Korea, Bangkok, Indonesia, Malaysia and finally setting up home in Singapore. She has also the opportunity to have been photographed in New York, Miami, South Africa and Milan.

Rebecca won Singapore's Model of the Year in 2003. In 2004, she won Babe of the Year from MediaCorp and was the host for Fashion Forward, an infotainment-based program on Channel 5.

Her immense portfolio includes 80 television commercials and 90 magazines covers globally. She has also been requested by top Hong Kong megastars like Aaron Kwok, Leon Lai and also top Thai singer Dom to star in their music videos.

Her recent works include being the face for VISA ads in Thailand, appearing in a full ad campaign for Canon cameras inclusive of an impressive TVC. She has also lent her charm to local milk brand HL, appearing on the full range of advertising mediums. In 2008, Rebecca also represented Singapore for the Triumph fashion show in Beijing.

Rebecca has ventured into some fishy business by setting up Kampong Fish Therapy with a few industry friends. She has also recently finished her interior design course and hopes to one day setup her own interior design outfit and help beautify homes. Her goal and desire is to one day star and do her own stunts in an action movie.

Catch Rebecca on Channel 5 as the host of Beauty Files where she shares with viewers her vast experience of looking good.
